Jennifer Chandler Appointed Managing Director of JusticeAid

WASHINGTON, DC, March 1, 2020

The Board of Directors of JusticeAid is pleased to announce the appointment of Jennifer Chandler as its first Managing Director.

Ms. Chandler will focus on a range of initiatives including strategic planning, programming, institutional advancement, and communications. She will also serve as liaison with JusticeAid partners and beneficiaries and oversee the day-to-day operations of the organization.

"We are thrilled that Jennifer has joined the JusticeAid team," says JusticeAid Co-Founder & CEO Steve Milliken. "We are confident that she will help strengthen our endeavors in the fight against injustice, lean into our mission, and fully leverage the power of community support for art and music by transforming awareness into action." Ms. Chandler brings more than 20 years of experience as a nonprofit attorney, consultant, and champion for causes that impact social justice and civic engagement.

Most recently, Ms. Chandler served as Vice President of the National Council of Nonprofits, where she worked on a national level to influence and develop capacity-building practices and public policies for a wide range of nonprofits. Earlier in her career, Ms. Chandler was Deputy Director of Pro Bono Partnership's New Jersey program and founded a statewide pro bono program that provided free legal assistance to hundreds of nonprofits.

"We are surrounded by dramatic disparities in access to justice. JusticeAid has a unique role to play in raising awareness and funding for heroic and innovative nonprofits working on the front lines of these issues," states Ms. Chandler. "I am thrilled to be working at the intersection of social justice and the arts, and look forward to helping JusticeAid honor and provide even more support for justice heroes."

Ms. Chandler has served on numerous boards of directors, including the Hyde and Watson Foundation, the Episcopal Community Development in Newark, N.J., the American Camping Foundation, the Princeton Day School, and the Council of New Jersey Grantmakers. She is a committed pro bono volunteer for clients seeking political asylum in the United States. Ms. Chandler is a graduate of Dartmouth College and Boston College Law School.
