Join us for Safety for Whom: Racist Policing in Communities and Schools, an online public forum in partnership with The Riverside Church of New York.

- > How can we end our nation's legacy of racist policing?
- > What steps can we take to eliminate the presence of police in our schools and the use of excessive force altogether?
- > What could real justice look like?

Featuring a keynote address by Sherrilyn Ifill, President and Director-Counsel of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund (LDF), and a compelling conversation moderated by Angela J. Davis, Distinguished Professor of Law, American University Washington College of Law, with panelists Rick Jones, Executive Director NDS PACE; Kristin Nicole Henning, Blume Professor of Law and Director of the Juvenile Justice Clinic Initiative at Georgetown Law; and Sally Lee, Founder and Executive Director of Teachers Unite.
