2026 Impact Report

This year, our nation grappled mightily with the tension between the core values we aspire to uphold and the actions taken in our names. Our community declared that the most vulnerable people among us deserve justice and due process. We stood together to demand that our ideals are put into action.

Our Grantee Partner

In 2026, your generosity supported the work of the National Immigration Project, a national nonprofit dedicated to advancing the rights of all people regardless of immigration status. This small and nimble organization is a force multiplier whose ability to share their expertise at viral speed and scope created a huge impact on communities, families, and individuals targeted by immigration enforcement overreach. Our community helped fund their work to:

- Block fast-track deportations without due process
- Uphold ICE warrant requirements in DC and Maryland
- End "Remain in Mexico"
- Defend the asylum rights of unaccompanied children

Three sold-out shows: Spring Concert at City Winery/NYC, Fall Concert at the Hamilton/DC, and a special Summer Concert at the Criterion Theatre in Bar Harbor, Maine.

Three Spectacular Concerts

At Rhythm Nation in NYC and DC, Pedrito Martinez and guest performers celebrated the musical diaspora from Africa, through the Caribbean, and across the Americas. In Maine, Rhiannon Giddens headlined a special concert benefiting Soft Power Health and JusticeAid.

Justice + Art

Our popular bi-monthly series highlighted the impact of global immigration on American art. The selections speak to the beauty that cannot be contained by borders.

2026 Artist in Residence

Paola Mendoza is a prolific creator, movement builder, and co-founder of The Resistance Revival Chorus. From fine art to film, books to performance, she uses art as a force for change, uplifting stories, cultures, and communities across borders.

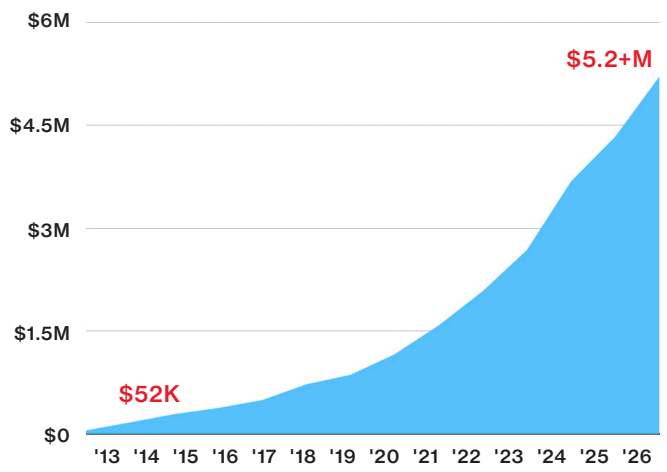

Our community of artists reminds us not just what we're fighting against, but what we're fighting for.
